

Apply now
for Fall
2015

Fall 2015 Semester

8/21-23: Opening Retreat (48-hr)
9/28: Lecture/Process 1
10/26: Lecture/Process 2
11/23: Lecture/Process 3
12/11-12: Closing Retreat (24-hr)

Spring 2016 Semester

1/16-17: Opening Retreat (24-hr)
2/22: Lecture/Process 4
3/28: Lecture/Process 5
4/25: Lecture/Process 6
5/6-8: Closing Retreat (48-hr)

== KOINONIA ==

School of Race & Justice

Koinonia means sharing in community. This School of Race & Justice provides safe space and tools to address racism in ourselves and to build justice in our city.

Lecture Topics include: History, diversity, shame, grief, lament, privilege, class, poverty, media, and law.

Process Groups: These intentional small groups process each lecture personally and its implications for the city.

Retreats: The retreats are designed to build community and delve deeper into our issues of race.

The deadline for applications is June 1. (Application is on back of this flyer.)
Cost: $1200. Some scholarship is available. For further information, please contact Rev. Janie Walker (804-783-7903), email: jwalker@richmondhillva.org

== KOINONIA ==

School of Race & Justice

Application to the Koinonia School of Race & Justice at Richmond Hill

Date _____ (please print legibly)

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Email _____

Cell Phone _____ Other Phone _____

Religious Affiliation _____

Essay Questions

Please answer the following questions. You may answer by regular mail, in an email, or as a document attached to your email. Please send your responses to: Janie Walker (jwalker@richmondhillva.org)

Why are you interested in participating in this school?

Can you provide a story of how race has shaped or affected your life?

What do you hope to gain from your participation in this program?